A GREAT DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.

The fight for municipal ownership in Chicago has resulted in the election of a Democratic Mayor by a plurality of over 24,000 and the majority of Roosevelt of 110,000 has been wiped out.

This shows what Democracy can do when it gets down close to the common people and gives the people what they want.

When it cuts loose from the franchise grabbers and public thieves and corporation monopolies who want everything in sight and who roll up their millions by a spoliation of the people.

The democracy to be Democratic must be hand in hand with the common people. The common people have been demanding municipal ownership of public utilities for a long time, but the selfish party leaders have shaken their heads and announced that the common people can't be trusted with municipal ownership and that such ideas smack too much of Socialism.

Well Edward F. Dunn decided to run on a square Democratic platform embracing municipal ownership, and people predicted that such a fight could not win. Well it won and there was a change of 134,000 votes to clinch the result.

It means that all Democrats are in favor of wresting the special privileges from the hands of a few and giving the people the right to run their own street railroads, gas plants and water works and it also means that there are thousands of Republicans who believe the same way, and who will come over to the party of the common people and become real Democrats in order to accomplish these results.

The Socialistic party believes in these reforms and the people who believe are increasing daily and they are a law abiding, intelligent class of people who are simply tired of being robbed by the trusts. The people must turn to the Democratic party for relief and the Chicago election is the handwriting on the wall.

The Hearst newspapers in Chicago fought the fight and deserve due credit for aiding in the splendid result.

Dunn's gain over the vote of Judge Parker was over 62,000. This means that in future Democracy must not pick candidates with the Wall street brand on, and back by Hill and Belmont.

The Pollock boys, who have been in jail either at Winnemucca or Goldend most of the time for the past two years, were arrested again and when placed in jail set fire to the bedding. When the fire was discovered they were nearly suffocated and had to be taken to the hospital.
